The background of the slide is white, featuring several abstract, colorful liquid splashes. On the left side, there are large, flowing splashes in shades of magenta, blue, and green. On the right side, there are smaller, more distinct splashes, including a large magenta one near the top and a large orange one near the bottom. Numerous small, multi-colored droplets are scattered throughout the white space. A solid light gray vertical bar runs down the center of the slide, framing the text.
