

Farmer's market

The 7th edition of the Woodside farmer's market was hosted by Phoenix MarketCity recently to support the local market community, where farmers sold their eco-friendly and hand-picked produce like farm fresh fruits, vegetables, artisan cheese, hand harvested honey, bakes and cake, directly to the customers.

Doctors' Day celebrations

A group of students from Velammal Vidyalaya Annexure visited Sundaram Medical Foundation and honoured doctors with bouquets and special gifts, while faculty members donated blood, on the occasion of World Doctors' Day recently.
