an extraordinary rendition of Salangai Poojal by 180 exquisite young artistes

VEL'S NATYALAYA

Vel's Natyalaya, the first dance school of the Velammal Educational Trust was inception in the year 2011 to enhance and enrich Indian classical dances among the student community.

The school imparts exceptional training in Bharatanatyam that attracts a huge horde of passionate enthusiasts every year who desire to learn, perform, perfect and propagate the art of dancing.

Dance is not taught here as a mere spectacle or entertainment but as a representation of ideals.

NRITHYA SANKALPAM, the Salangai Poojal is an annual dance performance organized to showcase the flawless and spiritual quality of the dance, the first milestone in one's journey as a dancer.

Vel's Natyalaya has been active on campus, putting on numerous shows and presentations. Into its third edition, the school has branched out widely from 55 pupils to 180 admirers in a short span of just 3 years. The riveting performance of 180 doyens of dance of classes III-VIII is a 'dance feast' indeed sure to leave a magical aura behind as consummate dancers do.
